Delivering on the benefits of the merger

Market developments

“Market conditions continue to be quite favorable, with very substantial volumes coming from emerging markets. We continue to make progress in promoting new applications to mobile operators, as expectations of subscriber experience is rapidly evolving.”

Philippe Vallée
EVP Telecoms

Jacques Seneca
EVP Security

“First semester confirmed our strong growth projections in Government Programs and numerous tenders remain ongoing in this field. Developments in IAM are progressing well, as we continue to invest to develop more commercial successes.”

“Our research confirms that security concerns and usage complexity are the biggest barriers to people enjoying their digital lifestyle. We want to put the end-user first as we collaborate with our customers to develop the most compelling offers.”

Paul Beverly
EVP Marketing

Revenue Growth *	4%	3%	10%

1. Frost & Sullivan “World Banking and Loyalty Smart Card Market”, Feb 2008

* Stated as year-on-year variations and at constant exchange rates

Market context remains robust and dynamic

High market penetration potentials

- More than 50% of the world population are still “unbanked”
- Only a quarter of payment cards in circulation are microprocessor-based
- EMV migration in Europe is currently only at 62% penetration

EMV continues to grow steadily

- Payment fraud is a global concern
- New EMV deployments in all regions, with global volume growing by over 20% a year
- SEPA compliance in Europe

Mix improvement is still ongoing

- Security a key issue for banks, driving migration to DDA* (enhanced security)
- DDA in mature markets estimated to reach up to 40% of TAM volume in 2008
- Growth of dual interface (contact and contactless) in Europe and Asia

Banks are looking for innovation

- Customer retention & acquisition is key
- Banks look for marketing & differentiation tools (card body / web services)
- New service offers gaining traction with banks, e.g. instant issuance to entice consumers

* DDA: Dynamic Data Authentication

Personalization and services are important drivers for revenue and profit expansions

34%

*H1'08 personalization revenue growth **

Personalizing over

90%

of Gemalto deliveries in certain growing markets

- ✦ Prominent banks in the UK and Canada have entrusted Gemalto with full-scale outsourcing
 - Trend: banks are shifting to outsourcing their personalization entirely
 - Additional opportunities in emerging EMV markets and expanding to enrolment services

- ✦ Gemalto personalization and services are highly valued by our customers
 - Sensitivity around customer data requires high level of certified secure data handling
 - Complemented by other value-added services such as customized packaging, expedite orders, tracking and stock management

* Stated at constant exchange rates and by reference to H1 2007 figures

Olivier Piou, CEO

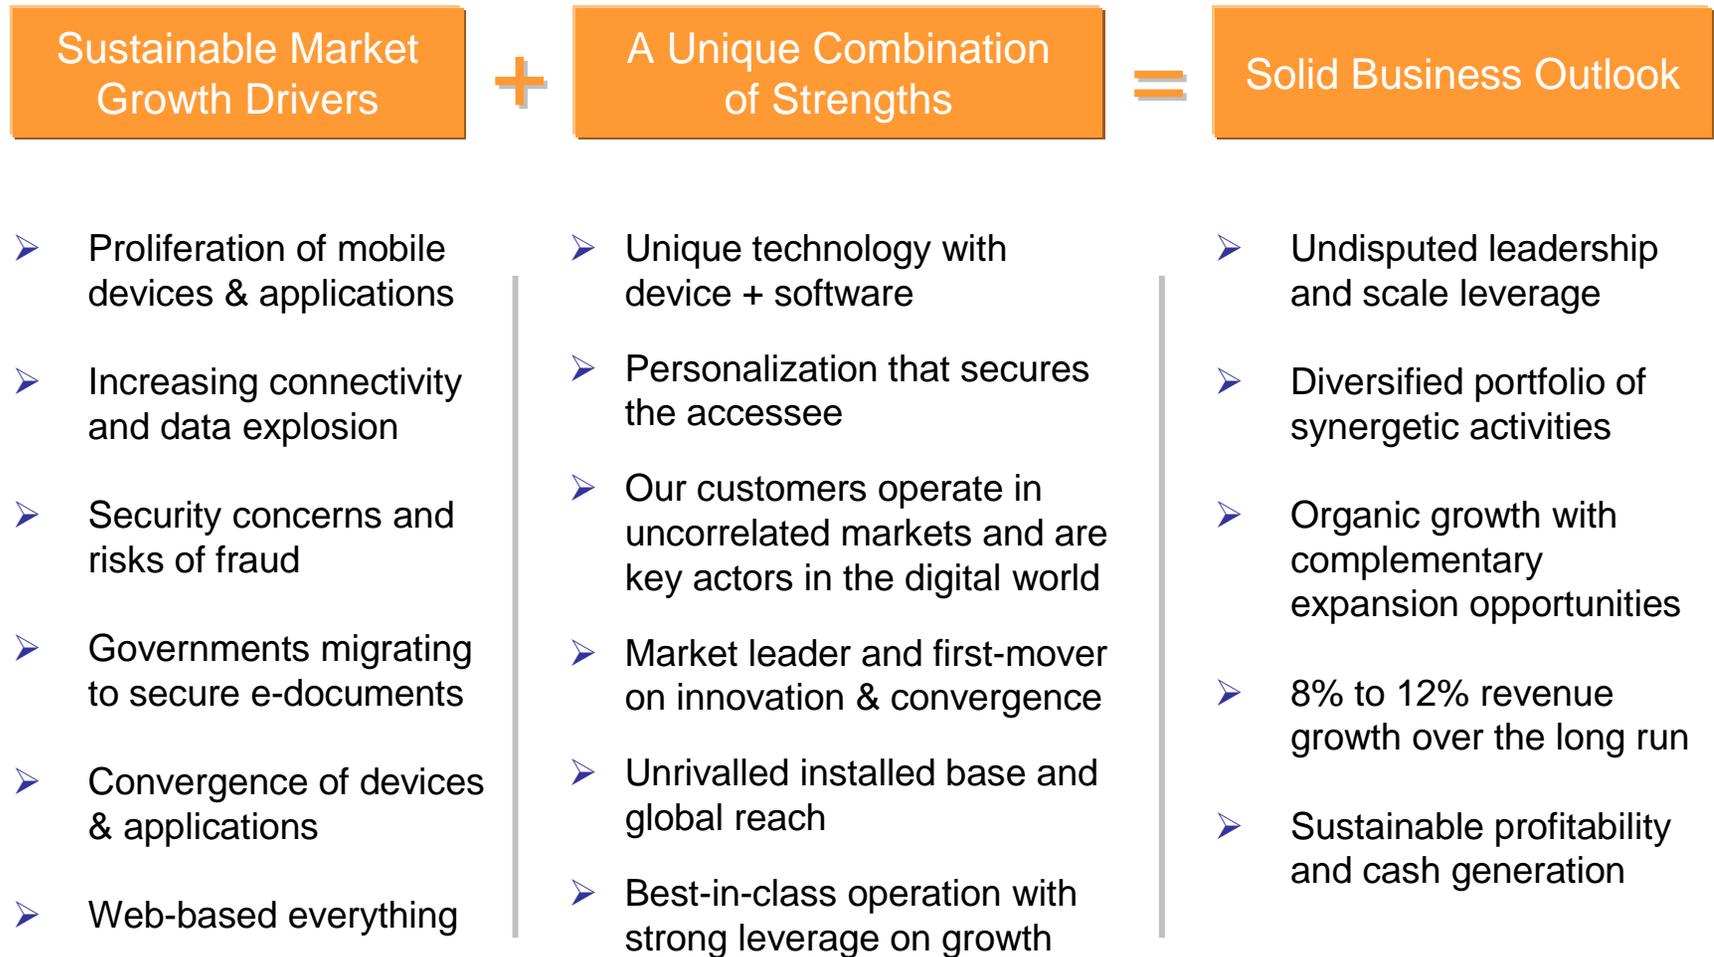

Outlook

Gemalto has set for itself an objective of achieving exchange-rate-adjusted revenue growth in the range of 8% to 12% over the long run. Revenue growth for 2008 is anticipated to be within this range. Our leadership position is generating commercial and operational advantages and we are encouraged by the progress in our performance. We currently see no evidence of the global financial turmoil significantly impacting our activities, aside from the evolution in the average exchange rates between the Euro and other currencies.

With the delivery of this considerably improved operating result for the first half of 2008, Gemalto is well on track to achieve significant profit expansion in the full year 2008. The adjusted operating income for the full year is now anticipated to be around €160 million.

Our 2009 objective of 10% adjusted operating margin remains unchanged.
