★ Outlook

Robust activity in the Middle East and Africa, lagging in the Americas

Mobile Communication

Revenue
(8%) | € 220m

- Software and services up 6% on the back of strong market interest in Middle East and Africa
- Slower demand than usual from higher-end regions this quarter
- Churn remains high in emerging countries leading to strong deliveries of entry- and mid-range products

Secure Transactions

Revenue
(6%) | € 107m

- Banking customers optimizing their inventories and cash
- Lower deliveries in parts of Central Europe and the Americas
- Robust demand for more secure DDA products, lower for older SDA cards
- Further deployments of dual-interface contactless EMV cards, mainly in Europe and Asia

Security

Revenue
(4%) | € 53m

- Government Programs up 4% with low deliveries in the Americas offset by strong growth in EMEA and Asia
- IAM lower by 18% due to weak enterprises demand and stable online banking solutions deliveries
- No new patent licensing revenue

Group revenue for the first 9 months, at € 1201 million, is essentially unchanged

Revenue variations are stated at constant exchange rates and by reference to 2008 third quarter revenue

Outlook

Our business has strong fundamentals and prospects. We continue our mission to provide trust and convenience to the wireless and digital world that is emerging, and look ahead with the goal of revenue growth and earnings expansion.

Market seasonality in 2009 is expected to be in line with historical patterns. Gemalto is well on track to achieve another profit expansion in the full year 2009. Our 2009 objective of above 10% adjusted operating margin remains unchanged. The adjusted operating income for the full year is now anticipated to be around € 180 million.

Leveraging Gemalto's key assets to further expand profits
